Ready to get started?

Once you've successfully registered for your fundraiser, here are some tips to get you started. You can find these support articles on the Read for My School app in your settings under customer support.

Tracking your reading sessions on the Read for My School app

Need help tracking your reading minutes? Please follow the steps below to track your reading session on the RFMS app. Learn more

Sharing your donation page to raise money for your fundraiser

Email, SMS, or social share your reading achievements and donation page with friends and family to raise money! Learn more

Making a pledge donation to your fundraiser

Discover how easy it is to make an online pledge donation through the RFMS app so that you can show your support! Learn more

Creating and managing your bookshelf on the Read for My School app

Build out your personal bookshelf as well as a wish list to support your fundraiser! Learn more

Creating and managing reader profiles on the Read for My School app

Have multiple readers in the family? Learn how you can create and manage multiple readers under one account to support your fundraiser. Learn More

Need Help?

Please connect with our in-app support team to answer questions or assist you with features of our reading and fundraising solution.

So what are you waiting for? Let's start reading and raising money for your school!

Supporting schools one book at a time
www.readformyschool .com